Death of Mr. Ewing.

Mr Archibald S. D. Ewing, whose Illness has been mentioned in the Leader, died at Grace Hospital about 10 o'clock Thursday morning. He had been Ill since the latter part of February, his trouble being in the nature of an abscess in the head, caused by an attack of pneumonia. To relieve this an operation was performed about two weeks ago and Mr. Ewing began at once to recover. However, he suffered a relapse several days ago and death resulted.

Mr. Ewing was born near Salem this county, in 1828, and was one of a family of sixteen children. He was WITHOUT LEARNING married in the early '60's to Miss Kate Amelia Fay and they lived happily together until her death over a year go. They had no children.

Of the large family of which he was member, only three survive him, a brother Mark, who resides at Lowell, and two half sisters, Mrs. Martin Wendelken, of Colorado Springs, Col., and Mrs. Elizabeth Whetstone, of

The funeral will occur at 4 o'clock this afternoon, the services to be conducted by Rev. W. E. Roe.

Miss Mollie Becker.

Miss Mollie Becker died at sever clock Thursday morning at her home on Fifth street, Death, which has been expected for some time, was the result of consumption with which she has een suffering for many months.

She was born in Marietta in 1862 and was the daughter of Daniel and Lizzie Becker. For several years she was a dressmaker by occupation and was a member of the well remembered Becker orchestra.

A father, mother, two sisters, Miss Anna and Mrs. L. M. Luchs, and a brother, Carl Becker, survive her, The funeral will be held from the

The germs of consumption are everywhere. You may breathe them in with the air, drink them with water, eat them

Once consumption gets a strong foothold it is alfoothold it is almost impossible to dislodge it. The time to cure it is at the beginning or before it starts. If you are run-down—build yourself up. Make every tissue so strong and well that consumption germs cannot find a foothold. Fill your body with rich, red blood—build up strong, healthy flesh—put your digestive system in perfect order. Don't drag along half dead. You may be well as well as not. The following letter from Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Van Buren, Kalkaska Co., Mich., will tell you how to do it. She says: "Before I took

A New Kind of Brick.

For thousands of years men have been making brick out of clay, and pretty good brick, too. But recently a new kind has come into vogue. It is composed chiefly of quartz sand. bound together with a small amount of lime. In the process of manufacture the compound is subjected to the influence of steam at high pressure. produced under other meterological

But there is now promise that this difficulty will soon be obviated. A consular report from Germany announces that a Zurich chemist, William Schwartz, has found a way to get good results every time. The secret lies in controlling the amount of moisture admitted to the compound and in maintaining the temperature within certain limits for a time. The former part of the process is managed in a vacum, so that no dampness can be imparted by the atmosphere. Herr Schwartz has invented a machine of his own to do the mixing. Much confidence is expressed in the substantial value innovation reported.
